MEDIA PARTNERS of the 4th edition of the SOFIA INTERNATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS

Bulgarian Telegraph Agency

The Bulgarian Telegraph/News Agency (BTA) is Bulgaria's national news agency.

The Bulgarian Telegraph/News Agency (BTA) supported the SOFIMUN 2011 event.

It provided media newsletters and information releases for the press about the SOFIMUN 2011 conference. Also the prime press conference venue of the Bulgarian civil society – the National Press Club of BTA assisted and supported the SOFIMUN Foundation on its implementation of press conferences about the SOFIMUN 2011 conference. The official website also had information for the SOFIMUN conference.

The Bulgarian Telegraph/News Agency (BTA) was founded in 1898 through a decree of Knyaz Ferdinand of Bulgaria during the government of Konstantin Stoilov. The Bulgarian News Agency is the main source of information for the Bulgarian media and the country's governmental institutions. The agency's latest statute, regulating its activity, was adopted in 1994. The agency is a member of the European Alliance of News Agencies.

BTA issues Daily News, the only English-language Bulgarian daily, as well as the weekly Bulgarian Economic Outlook, also in English. In Bulgarian, the agency issues the established weekly magazine Paraleli, the monthly culture-related magazine LIK, and 100%.

The BTA is now a major and reliable source of information to the print and electronic media, the state bodies and NGOs in Bulgaria.

MEDIA REPORT OF SOFIMUN 2011

MEDIA PARTNERS of the 4th edition of the SOFIA INTERNATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS

Bulgarian National Television

The publicly funded Bulgarian National Television supported the SOFIMUN 2011 event.

The programs "BNT 1" and "Satellite Channel Bulgaria" covered the event and broadcast more than 5 materials about the conference.

The Bulgarian National Television broadcasted in the prime-time news, spots of the conference and interviews with the organizers and the participants. The press conferences of the SOFIMUN Foundation were also broadcasted. The official website also had information for the SOFIMUN conference.

The Bulgarian National Television or BNT is the public broadcaster of Bulgaria. The company was founded in 1959 and began broadcasting on December 26 of the same year. It began broadcasting in color in 1970. BNT's headquarters are located in Sofia, Bulgaria, in a building located at the well-known address of 29 San Stefano Str.

BNT is funded from government funds (around 60%) with the rest coming from television commercials. It broadcasts two television channels: the over-the-air BNT 1 and the satellite BNT Sat, a channel aiming to broadcast Bulgarian production only.

The company has four regional broadcasting centres, based in Blagoevgrad (Pirin programme), Varna (More programme), Plovdiv (Plovdiv programme) and Rousse (Sever programme).
